Privacy Policy

Our Commitment to Privacy

Acts 4 Ministry, Inc. respects the privacy of every visitor to our website. Your privacy is a priority, and we go to great lengths to protect it. This Internet Site Privacy Policy explains our online information practices. This Policy may be changed or updated from time to time. By visiting Acts 4 Ministry, Inc. www.acts4.org, you accept the practices described in this Policy.

Data Collection

Through our website, we offer convenient online access to our services and communicate with you about important opportunities and event details for the Acts 4 Ministry, Inc.. We will not collect personal information from you when you visit our website unless you provide the information to us voluntarily and knowingly.

- Providing a secure online contribution or paying for an event: When you register online for an Acts 4 Ministry, Inc. event or provide a contribution, we will ask for your name and contact information. We may also collect payment information (such as standard credit card data) and date of birth.

How We Use Cookies

We send “cookies” to your computer and use other technologies to enhance your online experience. A “cookie” can be either permanent (i.e., it remains on your computer until you delete it) or temporary (i.e., it lasts only until you close your browser). A “cookie” is a small text file that helps us recognize repeat visitors, facilitate the visitor’s ongoing access to and use of the site, and track usage behavior and compile aggregate data that can lead to website improvements. If you do not want information collected through the use of cookies, you can deny or accept the cookie feature using a simple procedure available in most browsers. If you block cookies, however, you may lose some website functionality.

Is My Credit Card Information Secure?

We use a variety of safeguards to protect the security of your credit card transactions. We use technologies and processes such as encryption, access controls, network firewalls, physical security and other measures. These measures make it extremely difficult for anyone to intercept the credit card information you send to us. When we work with other companies to process credit card transactions, those companies also use encryption and other security measures. You can register online, by mail, or by calling 203-574-2287.

Is My Personal Information Secure?

We use the same security measures and industry-standard security protocols for online scheduling of attendees' personal information as we do for credit card transactions.

How We Use Your Information

If you provide Acts 4 Ministry, Inc. with personal information when you visit our website, we may use the information in our programs and activities. We may enter your name into one of our databases so we can contact you to provide information about our upcoming programs and events or to request your feedback.

On occasion, Acts 4 Ministry, Inc. may share information about you with vendors and service providers that assist us with our activities and programs. These vendors and service providers help us with functions such as fulfilling orders, managing data and processing payments. In addition, we make disclosures as required by law.

We Care About Doing It Right

Acts 4 Ministry, Inc. is committed to accuracy and precision in processing your contact and payment information. We employ a variety of error-checking procedures, and our systems are subject to independent external and internal audits to ensure the privacy, security and accurate processing of your information.

If you need to contact us to review your information or make corrections, please call 203-574-2287.
